Quality Counts

Poor quality shoes are the most expensive ones to buy—beware of those that have compressed paper soles—they won't and can't hold up.

Every pair of TRAVERS shoes is guaranteed to have solid leather soles, no matter what the price may be.

There's a source of satisfaction in knowing this don't you think?

Those offered for TOMORROW At $6.95

Will afford you a real saving, for we know that others are asking at least $2 to $3 the pair more for shoes of equal quality.

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Miss Glass' Wedding Plans—News of Official Society and of the Diplomats. Washingtonians at the Resorts

MISS AUGUSTA GLASS will be maid of honor at the marriage of her sister, Miss Mary Archer Glass, daughter of the Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Carter Glass, to John Guernsey Boatwright, which will take place on Saturday, November 1, in the Church of the Covenant. Miss Glass will also be attended by four bridesmaids, Miss Alice Boatwright, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Mary Ellen Marshall, of Little Rock, Ark.; Miss Mary Lynn, and Miss Emma Norvell Willis, of Lynchburg, Va.; William Clark Spencer, of Danville, Va., will be best man and the ushers will be Joseph Walton, of Roanoke, Va.; Deatur Holcombe, Ben Temple, and Albert Patten, of Danville.

The wedding will be followed by a reception at the new home of Secretary and Mrs. Glass, 1529 New Hampshire avenue. Mr. Boatwright, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Boatwright, of Danville, is in the tobacco business in Danville and it is there that he and his bride will make their home. He has recently been released from the army, having served overseas as a lieutenant of infantry.

Miss Glass is perhaps more widely known in Washington than any member of the family save the Secretary himself, as she was educated at Gunston Hall and was a great deal with her father while he was serving in Congress. At this time Mrs. Glass and Miss Augusta Glass spent most of their time at their home in Lynchburg, Va., and it was not until Mr. Glass entered the Cabinet that he took a house in Washington for his family. Mrs. Glass and Miss Augusta Glass are closing their Lynchburg home tomorrow, when they will come to Washington for the season.

Senor Ygnacio Bonillas, Mexican Ambassador to the United States, who is now in Mexico City, will temporarily take charge of the foreign office there. Senor Don Alfonso Siller, who was Mexican Minister to Brazil, has been appointed Charge d'Affaires of the embassy in Washington.

Returns From Massachusetts. Associate Justice John H. Clarke, of the United States Supreme Court, has returned after passing the summer at Williamstown, Mass.

Mint Jell

Try Mint Jiffy-Jell with roast lamb or cold meats. It is vastly better than mint sauce. Try Jiffy-Jell desserts with their real fruit flavors in essence form, in vials. Each is so rich in condensed fruit juice that it makes a real fruit dainty. Yet they cost no more than old-style gelatine desserts.

From October 6th to November 1st We Hold a Special Demonstration of FLEISHER'S YARNS

- Mme. Ida Gilchrist, expert demonstrator from the factory, will be here to explain the advantages of using Fleisher yarns.
- We are also holding at the same time an exhibition of the newest models in women's sweaters and scarfs, children's sweaters, tams, afghans and articles for babies' wear, all made of these beautiful yarns.
- Among the sweater models on display are the following new styles—already great favorites:
 - The Griswold Sweater, knitted of Shetland floss.
 - The Greenbrier Sweater.
 - The Roslyn Fillet Sweater.
 - The Victoria Sweater.
 - The Poinciana Sweater.
 - The Grenoble Sweater.
 - The Antoinette Sweater.
 - The Louisiane Sweater Scarf.
- Also the new Lake Shore cap, and many others.
- IT MAY SURPRISE YOU TO LEARN that there are 17 VARIETIES of Fleisher Yarns, and more than 500 SHADES. With such a color list it would seem possible to match anything.
- Experienced knitters and crochet workers know the quality of Fleisher yarns, but may not know that they are made only from the choicest wools, all carefully selected to produce yarns of unequalled softness and durability. It is not difficult, then, to understand why garments made of these yarns set well, retain their shape and give lasting satisfaction.
- FREE INSTRUCTION IN KNITTING AND CROCHETING with Fleisher Yarns. Classes from 9:30 a. m. to 5:30 p. m.

MAZOLA

Delicate, flaky pie crust makes the pie. Mazola is equal to butter and better than lard. Costs less than either.

DID you ever use Mazola for shortening? It makes wonderful pie crust. Easily digested—even by those who find it difficult to digest food shortened with animal fats.

Put Mazola to the test with this recipe for really delicious pie crust

2 cups Flour Pinch of Salt
1/2 cup Mazola Ice Water

Work Mazola well into the flour and salt, add enough ice water to hold together, about one-fourth of a cup; roll crust out at once.
